Meeting Goals:

To understand the feasibility of implementing potential recommendations being considered for the Little Hoover Commission's occupational licensing study.

1:00 – 1:15 p.m.

Welcome

Pedro Nava, Chair, Little Hoover Commission

Opening Remarks

Assemblymember Rudy Salas, Chair, Assembly Committee on Business and Professions

Introduction to Study

David Beier, Subcommittee Chair, Little Hoover Commission

Study Process and Purpose of the Roundtable

Carole D'Elia, Executive Director, Little Hoover Commission

1:15 – 3:00 p.m.

Discussion: Policymakers will discuss potential recommendations developed by the Little Hoover Commission over the course of its occupational licensing study process. These will include ideas about occupational regulation review, data collection, rulemaking and policy adjustments to make it easier for separating service members, military spouses, foreign-trained workers and former offenders to obtain licenses while still protecting public health and safety.

There will be an opportunity for public comment at the end of the roundtable. Please notify Commission staff if you would like to make a comment.
